

Edmund J. Ebrom

October 13, 1938 - September 9, 2009

EBROM

Sunrise 10/13/1938

Sundown 09/09/2009

Edmund J. Ebrom of San Antonio quietly passed away at the Baptist Downtown Hospital. He suffered a stroke 7 ½ years ago and made an amazingly complete recovery. Over the past few years he had dealt with numerous health problems. He is preceded in death by his parents, William and Hedwig Ebrom; 2 sisters, Elizabeth Albury, and Catherine Ebrom; and 1 niece, Lizzie Albury. Edmund is survived by his sister Christine Cieslak and husband Michael of Spring, TX; as well as nieces and nephews, Beverly Canales, John William Jones, Wanda Janczak, Yvonne Willborn, Cindy Dahl, Mark Jones, Lorna DeLashmutt, his care giver for the last 8 months, Michael Albury, Richard Albury, and their spouses and children, aunts, Pauline Lipok, Minnie Lipok, and Annie Theiss all of San Antonio. He is also survived by numerous cousins: especially his special ones, Lousie Fowler and Irene Mueller. Edmund worked in retail for many years including the "Old Joske's" in downtown San Antonio. He enjoyed traveling to many destinations in Mexico. Edmund never met a stranger, had a clever wit, and was a devout catholic; and had a special devotion to the Blessed Mother Mary. Edmund attended catholic schools and was a 1957 graduate of Central Catholic High School. He was knowledgeable on many subjects especially his family history. He would regale the younger generations with stories about the family history dating back at least a century. Edmund will be missed by his beloved pet Murray

Tribute Wall

JK

“ Fellow classmate, may you rest in peace and be embraced by our Savior's arms. Our prayers are with your family for their loss.

John Kitowski - September 12, 2009 at 12:00 AM

LJ

“ I attended St. Michael's Grade School and Central Catholic High with Edmund-he was a very religious person. Rest in Peace, my friend.

Leo Jehl - September 12, 2009 at 12:00 AM

HD

“ Rest in peace, dear classmate.

Henry Arriaga Dufeu - September 11, 2009 at 12:00 AM

EC

“ I worked with Eddie at Joske's in 1968 during HemisFair, and for a while after. He was a lot of fun, always cheerful, with a dry sense of humor. I've never forgotten him and have thought of him often over the years. The picture that y'all printed in the p

Evelyn Cooper - September 11, 2009 at 12:00 AM

TS

“ Chris, Although we never met Edmund we know through your stories that he was a wonderful person. You and your family are in our thoughts and prayers. Keep your fondest memories close to your heart. We love you, Tim and Ruthie

Tim and Ruth Sell - September 11, 2009 at 12:00 AM