

Edna Mae Fowler

November 30, 1921 - November 26, 2009

Edna Mae Fowler passed away on November 26, 2009 just prior to her 88th birthday. Edna was preceded in death by her husband, Jones W. Fowler, her parents, Robbie and Ed Spannagel, and brother Lawrence E. Spannagel. She was born in Randlett, Oklahoma, graduated from Lytle High School, attended North Texas State University and lived in San Antonio, Texas.

Survivors include her two children, Jeannie Brinkley and husband Wally of Georgetown, Texas; Kathy Serpan and her husband Mike of Golden, Colorado; grandchildren Jeff Brinkley and wife Laura; Tracy Isaac and husband Raymond; Chad and Ryan Serpan; great-grandchildren, Justin and Jordan Brinkley; Rebecca and Nathan Isaac; brothers, Russell, Kenneth, Bill, Johnny and Pat Spannagel; sister, Phyllis Sandlin; and numerous cousins, nieces and nephews.

Memorial services will be officiated by her brother, Rev. Pat Spannagel, Tuesday, December 1st at Mission Park Funeral Chapels South. Visitation will start at 2:00 pm with Service at 3:00 pm. Internment will follow at Mission Burial Park South.

Tribute Wall

DM

“ I send my deepest sympathy, may all Edna's family find comfort in recalling good times spent together. I have often thought about Edna and wondered what happened to her after the passing of my "Uncle Pat". Edna was a great companion for my Uncle. Than

---

Dianne Meadows - May 31, 2013 at 12:00 AM

ME

“ So Sorry I thought I was writing on Edna Lee Fowler's page. Please excuse my last post.

---

Meadows - May 31, 2013 at 12:00 AM

DP

“ Kathy,
My prayers are with you and your family. May you be blessed with God's peace and comfort during this difficult time.

---

Debbie Perkins - December 01, 2009 at 12:00 AM

CC

“ May the peace of the Lord be with all of you as you grieve and rejoice in the life of your mother.

---

Cheryl Clark - November 30, 2009 at 12:00 AM

MR

“ *It will be the little things that you will remember,
the quiet moments,
the smiles, the laughter.
And although it may seem hard right now,
it will be the memories
of these little things that help to push away the pain
and bring the smiles
ba*

---

Matt Rouse - November 30, 2009 at 12:00 AM

JJ

“ *Kathy - My deepest sympathy to you and your family for your loss.
May you experience God's peace as you celebrate your mother's life!*

---

Janet St. John - November 30, 2009 at 12:00 AM

BR

“ May the angels carry you gently on your journey.

---

Bob Rose - November 30, 2009 at 12:00 AM

EH

“ Jeannie, Wally, Jeff, Tracy, Kathy, Mike, Chad, & Ryan:

I love you all and am sorry for the passing of your mother ... a great lady, loving daughter, sister, mother, grandmother, and beloved aunt to me.

Erin

---

Erin Hepner-Spannagel - November 30, 2009 at 12:00 AM

TF

“ Kathy,

Keeping you in my prayers for comfort and peace. I know your mother is with our Lord and that in itself is a blessing.

Tim

---

Timothy Fix - November 30, 2009 at 12:00 AM

JS

“ Kathy, I had this read at my mom's memorial service and though it was well done. Hope you enjoy it also. My prayers are with you and the family. Thanks for being my friend.....Jeff

I did not die

*Do not stand at my grave and weep;
I am not ther*

---

Jeff Sauvie - November 30, 2009 at 12:00 AM

AS

“ It is a passing of a great woman. I alas miss the trips to the all you eat Mexican she used to take me to.
All my love,
Ann

---

Ann Spannagel - November 30, 2009 at 12:00 AM

VW

“ Mrs. Fowler was my "second mom" from the time I was 9-10 years old. Jeannie, Kathy and I were like sisters in our youth since I spent hours - day and night sometimes - at their home. My mom worked long hours and so did Mrs. Fowler but her hours worked out

---

Vivian Wehmeyer - November 29, 2009 at 12:00 AM