

Edna Mae Moody

November 5, 1929 - April 23, 2014

Edna Mae Rainey Moody, more affectionately known as Mema, went to be with her savior Jesus Christ on April 23, 2014. She was 84. Edna was born in Stamford, Texas on November 5, 1929 to Thomas Furth Rainey and Hattie Belle Huddleston. She spent her entire life in Texas, primarily in Haskell and Pearsall, before settling down for good in San Antonio. Edna was married to Charles Munday and gave birth to three children, Steve, Tommy, and Cynthia, before Charles' death. Edna later married Carol Moody and gave birth to a son, James, before Carol's passing. She spent her life caring for others. Her primary job was being a grandma, but she made a living as a nurse. Edna worked as a Licensed Vocational Nurse LVN until her retirement. Edna was a member of the Church of Christ, but received spiritual nourishment each week by watching First Baptist Church San Antonio on television.

Edna is preceded in death by her parents, brothers, sisters, and husbands. She is survived by her children: Steve Joyce Munday, Tommy Angela Munday, Cynthia Munday, and James Sherri Moody. Edna leaves behind six grandchildren, 11 great-grandchildren, one great-great grandson, and numerous nieces and nephews.

A viewing will be held Friday, April 25 from 6-8 p.m. at Mission Park Funeral Chapel South, 1700 SE Military, San Antonio, Texas. Funeral service will be Saturday, April 26 at 1 p.m. at Mission Park Funeral Chapel South. Interment will follow.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be sent in Edna's honor to the FBCSA TV Ministry, 515 McCullough, San Antonio, Texas, 78215.
