“ Edna & Dee lived behind my great grandparents (Mary & Ed Valicek) house in San Antonio on Brighton. We were going through photos & found this one. They were remembered fondly.

“ She had a smile as bright as the sun. She was a beautiful woman and was fun to be around .We would collect soda bottles when I visited her and grandpa in Wilmington,Illinois then cash them in and she let me buy things at Braun Sales. She was a loving grandmother and I will miss her dearly. I love you grandma.

*Edna and my grandma Dietrich we're both two very special ladies. I miss listening to them talk ,and all the laughter. I think I got my humor side of me from them. We had so many good laughs together on my visit to Grandma D's house. I sure miss that. I'm thankful I got to be apart of knowing them. It was a blessing. It's peaceful to know they are reunited together again. I miss them dearly. Both rays of sunshine & joy. My condolences to the family.
