

Eduardo A. Noriega

February 20, 1948 - June 3, 2024

Eduardo A. Noriega was born on February 20, 1948; and passed on to eternal rest on June 3, 2024. Eduardo was a very caring, humble and giving husband and father, who served his country in wartime as a Marine. He enjoyed hunting, welding, fishing and his fur babies (his two dogs). He is preceded in death by his two parents Apolinar Noriega, Sr. and Modesta Noriega, brother Apolinar Noriega, Jr., and sister Guadalupe Linan. He is survived by his wife Josefina Noriega of 52 years, his daughter Julia Maria Bentley and her husband Anthony Bentley.

“ I had the pleasure of meeting Eddie when we worked together at StandardAero. Great guy to be around, always had a smile on his face and a kind word for all. Even after he retired from StandardAero I would see Eddie from time to time at locations on the Southside and we would always make time to catch up. Many of us at StandardAero were blessed to have met such a dear Friend. My great friend Eddie will be dearly missed by many. Rest in peace brother Eddie.

“ The Edward I remember was a soft-spoken man. Always ready to help out a friend or family member. He was a Loving man to his wife Josephine (Fina) his High School Sweet Heart & devoted father to his daughter Julia Maria & as a son to the Noreaga family & in-laws. He leaves behind many loving memory for us all. He is now in the care of our Lord. My u rest in peace till we meet again. Roger & Sylvia Munoz Garcia
