Ed, as he like to be called, entered the military at the age of 17 and became a Fire Fighter. Crash Rescue operations was his passion and over the next 38 years achieved many great accomplishments, to include setting up numerous fires stations in various countries and eventually retiring as Assist Fire Chief from Kelley Air Force Base. He was a 33rd degree Freemason and member of the Legion of Honor with the Alzafar Shrine here in San Antonio. Through these organizations he helped to raise awareness and money for the Shrine hospital in Houston, which support burn victims and crippled children. Our father's greatest accomplishment was being an amazing son, brother, husband and Dad to all of his kids, grandkids and great grandkids.
