

Edward J. Bernal Jr.

May 17, 1942 - July 1, 2020

Edward J Bernal Jr., age 78, passed away on Wednesday, July 1, 2020 in San Antonio, Texas.

Edward was born in San Antonio, Texas on May 17, 1942 to Eduardo and Hortencia Bernal. At the age of 17, he served as a Boatswain Mate in the U.S. Navy. Following his military service, he continued on to retire from Southwestern Bell, now AT&T, after 30 years of dedication. Over the years, he was a man with a strong love for reading, baseball and history. But above all else, a strong love for his family. While living a mostly simple life, he was an extraordinary individual with a sense of humor and although stubborn, he was easy to be around for his ever-growing family.

He was preceded in death by his daughter Teresa Lynn Salias; brother, Dennis Bernal; sister, Dolores Bernal; his parents Eduardo and Hortencia Bernal and his first love Julieta Bernal. He is survived by his daughters Cynthia Medina (Desi Medina), Stacey Esparza (Robert Esparza), Rosario Reyes, Veronica Cho (Jacob Cho); and sons Edward J. Bernal III, Jay Bernal, Joe Reyes (Elizabeth Reyes); his sister Kathy Mitchell (Bob Mitchell) and former spouse Elizabeth Aguilar. Edward is also survived by 13 grandchildren, five great-grandchildren, aunts, uncles, nieces and nephews.

A Visitation and Rosary will be held on July 8 at 7:00pm at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North.

A Chapel Service will be celebrated on Thursday July 9 at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North. Followed by interment at Fort Sam Houston National Cemetery

Love and prayers to all of Eddie's family as I know he will be greatly missed. As one of his many 1st cousins I will always remember his kindness and joyful spirit. I always enjoyed seeing and talking to him at our Bernal family gatherings. I will pray that you will find comfort in The days ahead of your wonderful memories of Eddie.

*Love your cousin

“ I'm so sorry to hear about Eddie. I worked with him and played softball with him. The last time I saw Eddie was 43 years ago when I moved away from SA. I will never forget the way he looked at me that day, like he was looking at me for the last time which it did turn out to be. I thought of him throughout the years. My deepest sympathy to the family.

“ My Uncle Eddie was a man of few words while I was growing up. But, in his later years, he made sure to tell me that he loved me. I love you, too, Uncle Eddie.
