“ Edward was my Mentor and a best friend . We had the greatest of times. He would be first to check anyone without hesitation if they even looked at me crossways. Good by teacher and buddy. Never forgotten. Thanks Bro.

“ *He is and has always been my his Grandpa , I respect him more then I can express and I will miss him more then I can put into words 😞 he was the only person I ever got the pleasure to look up to as a father figure and he was a amazing man and an amazing father, friend, soldier and husband nothing is gonna be able to fill this hole that has been created for many of us , me especially, he was always proud of me and he loved my children as his own grandchildren.... He accepted us and me as we were u will never find that in another person anywhere
I love you Grandpa we all do
See you later Ol Man*

“ The fondest memory that I had of Edward was the respect and love he had for my dad and our family. And the relationship you and him had. The glow he had when I would see you two together was like a love of no other. You will forever be your daddy’s girl. I love you Prima. We will see our loving fathers again one day. That’s a promise God gave us. That who ever believes in him Shan not perish but have ever lasting life. Mustard seed faith is all one needs. Love you Lori. And my deepest condolences to the DeLaGarza Family.
