Edward Felan, Jr.

June 26, 1965 – November 2, 2015

Edward Eddie Felan Jr. was called home to be with the Lord on November 2, 2015 at the age of 50. He was born on June 26, 1965 in San Antonio Texas to Edward and Basilisa Felan. Eddie was a Licensed Professional Counselor with many accomplishments: Bachelors of Science, University of Texas at San Antonio, 1991; Masters of Science – Counseling Psychology, Our Lady of the Lake University, 1999; Member of the National Board for Certified Counselors; Owner and Clinical Supervisor/Therapist at Amistad Counseling Services; Member of Knights of Columbus, Council #7265; Booster parent and Coach for Atonement Crusaders. Eddie is survived by his spouse of 23 years, Raquel Felan, children Olivia Eva and Alejandro Basil Felan, his father, Edward Felan Sr., and brother, Charles Felan. He was predeceased by his mother, Basilisa Felan, brother, Roger Felan, and beloved aunt, Estella Peña. Eddie's professional calling as a Counselor was an obvious fit for his generous, giving and caring nature. He gave selflessly of himself in a professional and personal capacity. His philosophy was to improve the quality of life for others through inspiration, growth, and empowerment. He loved to smother his beautiful children with hugs and kisses, play his guitar, and surround himself with family and friends. Eddie was a brave survivor of seasonal abuse from the Dallas Cowboys, and was an avid Spurs fan. "We were the lucky ones to receive his grace and presence. His light will forever shine in the legacy of his children, and his nieces and nephews." Visitation will begin at 4:00 PM on Friday, November 6, 2015 at Our Lady of the Atonement Catholic Church with the Vigil/Rosary at 7:00 PM. The Mass of the Resurrection will be celebrated at 2:00 PM on Saturday, November 7, 2015 at the church with Reverend Christopher Phillips celebrant. All services will conclude with the Mass.
