

Edward P. Gistaro

May 31, 1935 - July 3, 2012

Edward P. Gistaro beloved husband, father and grandfather went to be with the Lord, July 3, 2012. He was born in Brooklyn, NY to Peter and Eugenia Gistaro who preceded him in death. He was also preceded in death by his brother, Joseph Gistaro. Ed was a graduate of Regis High School NY and a 1957 graduate of Notre Dame University. He served as an officer in the U.S. Navy from 1957-1960. Ed and his family moved to San Antonio in 1973 and eventually became President and CEO of Datapoint Corporation. After leaving Datapoint in 1987 he started Frescala Foods, a pasta manufacturing company. He then became President of Docucon, finally retiring in 1999. Ed loved golf, travel, cooking and most of all being with family and friends. He and his wife Martina recently celebrated 50 years of marriage on November 11, 2011. He is also survived by son, Edward "Ted" Gistaro and wife Christine S.; daughter, Jean Gistaro Matthews and husband Wes; sister-in-law, Elaine Megna; his beloved grandchildren, Erin, Courtney, Tanner, Blake; numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

SERVICES

The family will receive friends from 6-8 PM Thursday, July 5, 2012 at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North. A celebration of life will be held at 12:00 PM Friday, July 6, 2012 at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to ThriveWell Cancer Foundation, P.O Box 29331,

San Antonio, TX 78229, or Vitas Hospice at www.vitascharityfund.org.

Tribute Wall

CM

“ I worked at Datapoint in Australia in the 1980's and met Eddie a couple of times - lovely man. We attended "Presidents Club" together in Hong Kong in about 1984 I think. I was prompted to think of him today as I am making my first ever trip to San Antonio next week.

Craig Moran - May 05 at 08:20 PM