

Dr. Edward Huron

December 28, 1970 - March 15, 2024

DR. EDWARD HURON was born in San Antonio, tx to parents Uvaldo G Huron (deceased) and Corina G Huron (deceased) on December 28th 1970. DR. Huron is #5 of 6 children, his sisters are Lucy Huron, Rosemarie Solalinde (deceased), Stella Huron, Corina Rivera, Brother Uvaldo Huron JR, Brother In Law Manuel Martinez(Deceased),he also leaves behind his loving partner of 25 years Steven Misuraca. Including multiple nieces and nephews that loved him dearly.

Huron graduated from Southside Highschool, class of 1989, he enlisted in the marine corps in 1990 where he began his education journey. Huron later found out he was having kidney failure and needed a kidney transplant. He was still attending college while he was going through dialysis and earned his BA and MBA at Devry University and later was accepted to The University of Laverne and received his MLM and MCS.

After 9 years on dialysis on May 16th, 2018 he received a generous donation of a kidney. Edward still was furthering his education with his new kidney and on May 18th 2022 he proudly called himself Dr. Edward Huron E.D.D, graduating from the University of LaVerne.

He accomplished so much in so little time and his family and loved ones couldn't be more proud. Edward unfortunately passed away at university Hospital on March 15th,2024. A service of remembrance will be held from

4p.m. To 8p.m at Mission Park South 1700 SE Military Dr, San Antonio, Texas

“ I met Edward a few years ago when I needed help with a project (at work). He was an invaluable resource and a sweet, nice guy. I appreciated him for all the work he did and what he taught me about creating training material for a large audience. What a wonderful man and a significant loss for all of us. RIP, Edward.
