“ Betty, I know Bob attended Edward's funeral and I am so sorry I was not able to. When I came into this Koenning-Buckner family, I was always in laughter when around your hubby and Bob's Uncle. I remember all the stories about your dancing episodes and all the life the two of you had -- and the fact you both enjoyed every minute you could. I just wanted you to know he will be missed by many. Definitely his jokes. Please keep that beautiful smile you have always had yourself, obviously from being happy. Stay well and remember what Edward would want you to -- Dancing, Smiles & Joking around. Remember you can always talk to him anytime you want. Never stop. God Bless and keep in touch.

Uncle Eddie was our tradition of "first" haircuts for our boys! They went to Eddie for years! Thankfully they don't remember all his jokes! We will miss him dearly!
