“ Ed who I always knew as "Joe Mac" was a dear friend to my family. He was good friends and loyal friend to my Uncle Maxey Rogers from Huntsville, and was a great friend to me and in some ways a role model. I will miss Joe Mac he was a great guy who I observed always helping the people at his Insurance office, was loved and respected. I know that his greatest reward will be in Heaven, because the Lord has said "he who is first will be last , and he who is last will be first." I'm pretty sure Joe Mac will be first in Heaven. He shared with me some very interesting stories about the McCaffety's genealogy and my last talk with him was happy to hear that there was a McCaffety who fought in the Alamo! Will miss you Joe Mac but won't forget that you were an honorable man, and just a great guy. God bless you and your family!
