“ You were my hero, my teacher, my steady rock. There are no words big enough to capture what you meant to me, but I will try.

You lived your life with love, humility, and strength. You cared for Mom with unwavering devotion for over 30 years—never seeking praise, just quietly doing what needed to be done because your heart was that big.

You filled our home with music, laughter, and the smell of barbecue. You taught me how to enjoy life’s simple pleasures—golf in the sunshine, dirt on your hands in the garden, dancing in the garage to Tejano songs.

And you always made us laugh. You had a funny, sometimes unexpected sense of humor that could light up a room and lift our spirits when we needed it most.

He was a twin, and that bond was a beautiful part of who he was—always connected, always giving, always loving twice as much.

You loved deeply. You gave everything to your family. And even in your final days, you wanted to keep going—for us.

I miss you more than words can say. But I feel you in everything—your music, your flowers, the love you gave. Thank you for being the best father. I was—and always will be—so proud to be your child.

*With all my love,
Myra Monita Martinez*
