

Edward Lee Robinson

December 24, 1964 - October 31, 2025

Edward Lee Robinson was born on December 24, 1964 and is at rest as of October 31, 2025. He is preceded in death by his father Edward Adam Robinson, his mother Sarah Hagerty, and his brother Michael Thomas Hagerty.

His memory is lived on by his wife Rosalinda Roel, his sister Christine Jane Rosenberg, his children Ryan Nicole Morua, Danielle Maria Robinson, Gabriela Dominique Robinson, Michael Eric Lee Robinson, Brandon Arthur Roel (Alyssa), Victoria Ashley Robinson, Edward Jacob Robinson, and his nieces Sara Jane Rosenberg, Holly Marie Rosenberg. With many friends he has made along the way.

Edward was born in Minneola, New York, also home to his favorite team the New York Yankees. He was the second child born of his parents and spent his childhood being called "Meatball" and playing with his favorite toy trains. He joined the United States Marine Corps at the age 22 and served our country for 3 years and 5 months. After leaving the Marine Corps, he started his career at Coca-Cola Southwest where he spent the last 25 years and famously self-proclaimed himself "Coca-Cola Ed" as his voicemail would declare.

One of his many greatest achievements besides being the best cook around, was being a beloved husband to his wife, Rosalinda Roel for 22 years. He enjoyed outings with her listening to 80's music, and drinking a cold one. He was a devoted father to his seven children. In his home everyone was welcomed. You would always hear him say, "just grab a plate and a drink from the ice chest."

Edward was always the life of the party from his loud cheery voice, to his 80's music videos always on nothing less than 100% volume. You always knew it was going to be a good time when he's around. One of his favorite pastimes was trying out new foods and sending pictures out to everyone so they could be in the know and try it soon.

Even though he is no longer with us, his memory will never be forgotten. He will forever remain in our hearts. From his legendary parties, to just being able to enjoy a beer in the garage with him. He will always be our favorite person and our #1 supporter. We will miss him dearly. Rest easy Coca-Cola Ed.

“ Ed and I met in 1986 at Boot Camp at Parris Island and became best friends as we served the next 4 years together. "Uncle Eddie" was a fun-loving, life of the party, kinda guy!! Here are a few pictures of us at various duty stations. I tried to find my buddy, but unfortunately we lost contact many years ago. My deepest condolences to the family. May he rest with our Saviour. As a Marine, I know he is guarding Heaven's Gates.

“ I have no pics to share, but I do hold alot of memories with Coca Cola Ed! Though I worked for the competitor, We clicked together. This guy was a hard loyal worker. We shared alot of good times! Then came Rosalinda, and more good times! Then came the best thing ever! My Goddaughter(my princess). Victoria! I will miss your wild and crazy personality buddy! You'll always be in mind my friend, my brother. Love you Coca Cola Ed! Rest Easy.
