

Mr. Edward Perry Weddel Jr.

February 19, 1978 - October 24, 2020

Dora Perez Weddel and Edward P. Weddel, Sr. chose to acknowledge that their son Edward Perry Weddel, Jr. died by suicide after struggling with depression. In the “hopes of starting a dialogue to remove the stigma of mental illness.” He leaves behind gifts from God Andrés Miguel, Brooklyn Sloan, Camryn Pari, & Julian Christopher; brother & best friend Matthew James Weddel (Jennifer); numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, & friends. Edward (aka Bubba/Eddie/Tweety) was truly the jokester and self-proclaimed “fun guy.” He was always the first to offer a good burn, lend a hand, volunteer to be your wingman or partner-in-crime, and be your big brother. He was a tower of strength with a ginormous heart and a truly genuine kindness. He loved hard. He will be missed immensely. Edward gave in death as he gave in life; he was an organ, eye, and tissue donor.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks to please consider donations or advocacy for the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline: www.suicidepreventionlifeline.org donate

“ I’m so very blessed to have gotten to have a whole year with you. You were my best friend and the love of my life. I have missed you everyday since you have been gone. I miss your texts, FaceTiming, phone calls and our countdowns to Thursday afternoons when you would be on your way up to SA. I see you and everything your doing to let me know your here, but what I wouldn’t give for one more day with you. I pray that you have found the peace you had been struggling with. I will never be the same again ever until I see you again. Wendy + Peter always. Be free my love and fly high! Until we meet again. ❤️🙏
