“ My dear brother, oh how you made me so angry at times. Like throwing my Suzie doll on the roof when we were kiddos. But then you would say or do something that melted my heart. I've loved you for almost 67 years. I'll keep on loving you until we meet again. Rest in Eternal peace, Sonny.

My big brother Ed (family called him “Sonny”) was always there to help me. He was a father figure to me after my Father passed away in 1969 at the age of 48.

He taught me how to play Baseball, Basketball, Swim, & fish. Also taught me how to drive, take care of my car, & collect coins & stamps.

We also watched Boxing, Kick Boxing, & Wrestling together. We were close.

I love you with all my heart Sonny.

Your little sister. Lottie ❤️

Sorry to see this so late. We hung out together almost every weekend after we graduated from Highlands. Never a dull moment hanging around Eddie and John Dohman.

Happy Birthday Dad. I miss you and Meemaw more than you know. Oh I miss her hugs and the scent of her perfume and funny jokes and the way she cut my enchiladas till I was a teenager. I miss having you both in my life and all our adventures. I thought it would never end. I hope you're in Heaven having the most beautiful birthday party, I hope they have an equivalent to lotto scratch offs there, I hope you're happy and full of love. I'm sending you some from here, I know you're not far. I hope you look over me, I always want to make you proud. Love you always and forever, Jess.

Hi Dad me again. I miss your blue eyes and your big laugh. I hope you watch over me at work. It's been hard being outside on my feet for eight hours every day. My anxiety is getting better though.

Thank you for visiting me at the cafe awhile back. I smelled the cigarette you always smoked when I was a child and no one was near and I knew it was you. Please visit me in my dreams.
