

Edwin Setterfield

May 25, 1915 - December 3, 2013

Ed Setterfield was born in Ohio on May 25, 1915, went to be with the Lord December 3, 2013. He became interested in the Institute of Texan Culture where he was a docent on the Chuck Wagon for 31 years. He was a story teller extraordinaire at the Institute where he loved taking to the children. He was a great father and husband. He was preceded in death by his parents Cary Setterfield and Fern Pfeister and both of his brothers, Bill and Floyd Setterfield; granddaughter Christy Holder Dawson and Katelyn Hanna and daughter-in-law Roxie Setterfield. He is survived by his loving wife Helen; sons, Jim, Bill and wife Donna; daughters, Suzy Horn and husband, Darrell, Lois Cole and husband, David; 9 grandchildren; 11 great grandchildren and 5 great great grandchildren.