“ I'm sorry to hear about your loss, I would go twice a month to clean her house. She always made me laugh when I would come to her house. She will be greatly missed.

“ I am shocked of her passing. She and I met in the Philippines and became crocheting friends. Our love for crochet continued upon return to San Antonio.

Her grandchildren brought her much happiness. To Michael and her family, I'm so sorry and I know she will be missed.

Relying on your faith will carry you through difficult times. You all are in my prayers!
