

Eleanor Thomas Gough

November 20, 1921 - January 15, 2021

Eleanor Thomas Gough born November 20, 1921 in Waverly, Kentucky died peacefully in her sleep on Friday, January 15, 2021 in Phoenix, Arizona. She is survived by two children, Tom Gough and Geri Lavallee; two grandchildren, Georgina Lavallee and Blaine Lavallee; four great grandchildren, Mark, Eleanor, George and Madison; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Cemetery Details

San Fernando Cemetery #2

746 Castroville Rd.
San Antonio, TX 78237

Previous Events

Private Graveside Service

JAN 29. 1:00 PM (CT)

San Fernando Cemetery #2
746 Castroville Rd.
San Antonio, TX 78237

Tribute Wall

GL

“ Born in 1921, a year after women got the vote, and while Warren G Harding was president. Moved from Kentucky to San Antonio when she was around 6 years old. Graduated from Fox Tech HS where she was the ROTC sweetheart.

Went to Washington DC in 1941 for her first

US Federal government job with the Department of Treasury.

Moved to Chicago, where she met her husband, Rudy Harold Gough. Had 2 children while moving around the U.S.

Moved to Tachikawa, Japan in 1962 where she worked for the US Air Force. Retired in San Antonio, Texas and moved to Queen Creek, AZ to live with her daughter during the last year of her life.

---

Geraldine Gough Lavalley - January 28, 2021 at 11:13 AM