“ My mom who was also Polish and also named Eleanor met Eleanor when we moved to Alaska and bought a house just down the street in Anchorage Alaska. Eleanor and Bill came over to welcome us. I loved sitting at the table with them when they got together for coffee and just listening to women-talk. They gardened together, co-led Cub Scouts, got together to play cards, were part of the Ladies Altar Society where they placed fresh flowers from their gardens on the altar. Eleanor kept all three of us kids when my parents traveled. When my parents moved to Texas 20 years ago, they got together for holidays. Eleanor referred to me as Stella-Jo, a real sign of knowing me as a small child. She was always kind and encouraging and will be sorely missed!

“ My deepest condolences. Ms. Eleanor was a Godsend to me in 1986-87; I needed a job; so I walked into Harris Western Center on Military Dr.; she asked if I needed any help; and I replied; yes mam , I need a job today! She said your hired!!! Created a great respectful employee that day!!
