Mama nothing will be the same again no more visits. No more reminiscing. But you are with the Lord now no more suffering. We are all on borrowed time and my God allowed us 101 years with you. What a blessing. I'm still selfish and think you left too soon. But the memories will always be in our hearts gone but not forgotten. And then you took a piece of our heart with you. What is my husband and I never knew how much you meant to us or how much they love you.luv Mary and Balde Charo

“Dearest Tia Elena left me with memories of many joyous, happy visits she and my mother, Rebecca Escamilla, shared. They enjoyed reminiscing about old times and about raising their families. These memories of her will keep her alive in my heart. My sincere sympathy to my cousins and their families in the loss of your dear mother, grandmother. May she rest in peace and may God give you strength in your time of sorrow. Rosalinda Escamilla Mendoza & Family
