“ My Brother doing what he loved best, besides talking shit and being himself. He was good at hiding his emotions from others. I knew he was hurting but I didn't realize how much. He confided in me that he missed Richard. He lost a lot. I Told him you have always had a brother in me . He didn't realize how many brothers he had who cared about him and loved him. GESI was not just our company but our family. I wish he knew how much we all cared about him. And would have been there if he needed us . I'm going to miss you a lot. ”

“ These two were inseparable. Even with the voids they've left behind, may we find peace knowing they are together and at peace now. They are both greatly missed. ”
