Tribute Wall

FV

“ Our lives were thirsty for someone to love us, and you came into our lives and quenched that need. We know God loves us, but you reached into our lives and caressed our hearts with your tender words, warm hugs and beautiful smile. I will always treasure

“ I remember when I was little and Elida would take care of me and some other kids at her house. I called her Nana. I learned how to do almost everything with Elida at her house. She was the sweetest person that I had ever known and probably will ever know.
