CASTILLO

Elisa Cisneros Castillo fondly known as Chelo entered God's kingdom on September 21, 2013 at age 86, after a critical fall. Elisa was happily married to Enrique E. Castillo for 62 years. They were inseparable. Elisa loved life! She loved to sing and used her talent by being a founding member of the Mariachi De Colores Choir in the 1970's, the first Catholic mariachi choir in the United States. She loved selling and once again used her skills to sell Avon Products for 50 years. She loved dancing so she formed one of the first church "Danzas de Matachines" in San Antonio. She was a founding member of the Caminantes de Cristo which was established over 35 years ago. This group was one of the first organizations to take the passion of Jesus Christ to the streets of San Antonio. She loved people, so she became a member of numerous church and social clubs, such as The Guadalupanas, Bible Study Groups, Bonco club and countless others. But most of all, she loved her family unconditionally. Elisa embedded the value of education in her children, nephews and nieces as well as her strong Catholic values.
