March 23, 1946 - August 14, 2024

Elizabeth "Liz" Anguiano entered her eternal rest on Wednesday, August 14, 2024, at her home in San Antonio, Texas. She was born on March 23, 1946, to parents Valentin and Isabel Lozano. Liz spent her early years working alongside her parents in the family grocery store. In 1969, she shared her first dance with her forever sweetheart, Jesse Anguiano. They married in 1971, raised three children, and enjoyed 52 years of marriage. A devoted wife and mother, Liz nurtured her household with grace and unwavering faith in God. When her children were older, she returned to the workforce and dedicated many years to early childhood education, teaching and later substituting in Catholic schools and SAISD. A lover of shopping sprees, selling Avon, sweet treats, and the Spurs, she brought joy to her family with humor and her dimpled smile. She is preceded in death by her parents. She is survived by her husband, Jesse Anguiano; her children, Veronica Anguiano, Jesse Anguiano Jr., and Angelica Anguiano-Esquivel and husband

Manuel; and her grandchildren, Mikey, Zoey, Zach, and Ella. The family would like to thank The Medical Team Hospice, Angela, Angelica and Chaplain Georgia.

“ Thank you Tia for bringing style and elegance to our family, any time I wear a fancy outfit or jewelry it will reflect what you taught me about style and substance. Most importantly, I will never forget how much you guided me and sponsored me through RCIA-Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults confirming my faith in the Catholic Church. You were a living example of the Gospel for me... you will always be in my prayers thank you for caring and praying for me as I recovered from my aneurysm. I know you must be in Heaven celebrating with our heavenly family. Thank you for being you...”

“ The first time I met Mrs. Anguiano was at her home during the holidays. I walked in and I saw many many miniature village scenes through out her home. Her entire face lit up talking about how much she loved putting them up! She was a beautiful person through and through! May she rest in peace 🕊️
