“ What a joy it always was to see Mrs. Betty's smile. Such a precious lady who loved the Lord with all her heart, mind and soul! The last time I saw her was at our daughter's wedding in 2012. She confided, " I looked at her registry and decided what she really needed was a good cookbook. What young bride doesn't need a good cookbook?" followed by her laugh. That book has been much used and holds a special place in Jennifer's kitchen, so Mrs. Betty has been a part of so many meals there. She was and is the example that comes to my mind when I read Proverbs 31, and was a wonderful mentor and friend. My love and prayers are with her family, who I know are waiting for that blessed reunion with her one day.

“ Beatty Beard was a person many people fell in love with at church at Main Post Chapel. For a while she was picked up for church by The Buford's. Other parishioners always looked at her seat to see her or if she was not there asking where is she. She will be truly missed at Main Post Chapel. She was truly an angel, a mentor to all and has gone to Heaven to be our Angel!
You will truly be missed.

“ My sincere condolences to your family. Betty touched my heart like very few people have. She was my sister in Christ at PWOC. She loved me, taught me so much about relationship with Christ, encouraged me, and stamped my heart forever. I rejoice she is with our Heavenly Father and look forward to seeing her in heaven.

“ I served with Betty in Church Women United. She held many positions in the organization and did her jobs well. I loved her laugh and sense of humor. She has been missed at our meetings for a while now. I know that she is with her Lord and Savior and in His arms of rest and comfort. Terry Schoenert, CWU President
