Tribute Wall

“ Mrs Hernandez "mom" will always be in my heart and memories . I was blessed to have met her in 2015, and shared that blessing with my children, whom have grown fond of "grandma Liz".. The many morning chats over coffee and breakfast , the many times of her fussing at me because I was always barefoot, the loving way we ended up taking care of each other ... She was so excited to see me get married in the back yard , the craft projects I would make for her , or the cards she would exchange with me .. the list goes on . . She is dancing in heaven as she plays the piano for me up there ...
