

Elizabeth Anne Martinez

February 8, 1970 - October 17, 2018

Elizabeth Anne Martinez age 48 died on Wednesday October 17 in her home in San Antonio Texas. These are by far the saddest words to write. Elizabeth was born February 8th 1970 to Guadalupe and Frank Martinez in San Francisco California. She loved and was loved by all who knew her. Her smile, beauty, wit and intelligence defined her as did her love for her mother and her 3 sons whom she left, Samuel, Aaron and Isaac. She also was devoted to the love of her life Lee Zoll.

Life presented Liz with many challenges and she met each one with faith and resolve. She remained committed to her sweet Issac and was not daunted by his needs, rather showered him with love all her life. Guadalupe Zepeda Tygett survives her only daughter and best friend. How deep her wound is now. Only faith and Trust in Jesus sustains her as He did for Elizabeth during her life.

She leaves many cousins who love her more like a sister. She loved them all dearly. Liz also connected strongly with her many aunts and uncles. She joins her sweet cousin Liza Marie her auntie Inez and her Grammy in heaven glorifying God!

Every day we are met with new challenges.

Every day we and those around us struggle to keep the faith and maintain hope.

Every day we are confronted with crises that need our response.

Every day you encounter your own large and small failures.

But every day we listen to God.

And while listening, He is woven into each day, the life of faith infuses every aspect of our human existence and allows us to experience life in the presence and actions of God.

You will, by far, be a better woman or man because you are listening. You will know His strength, His wisdom, His joy and His PEACE!

Know that we are praying for and you will not be defeated or put down. You are the daughters and the sons of the Most High!
