

Elizabeth McKissock

May 20, 1925 - January 30, 2016

Elizabeth was peacefully called to eternal rest on January 30, 2016 at the age of 90. She is now reunited with her husband Roy and mother Charlotte Hillcoat, sister Charlotte MacKenzie, brother Thomas Muir, and sister-in-law Sharon Hillcoat. She is survived by her brother Dr. Robert Hillcoat and wife Mary, along with his children John Hillcoat, wife Tammy, and Jennifer, his nephews John Bryce and Mason, as well as Jennifer's nieces Valerie and Kendall Smith, sister Charlotte's son Neil MacKenzie and wife Lenny and his family, niece Paige Mackenzie and nephew Ryan MacKenzie. She is also survived by her only daughter Donna DeSoto and her son Robert DeSoto as well as a great grand-daughter Jaelyn Desoto, as well as grandson Benjamin DeSoto and her great grand-children James De-Soto, Tevian Desoto, and Eusebius DeSoto. She was also a grandmother to Maria Dominguez for four years who she became very attached to and loved like all her other relatives.

She was born in Clydebant Scotland and moved to Twickenham, England in her early twenties. She landed in Sydney, Nova Scotia in 1947 and then moved to Montreal Canada where she met and married her husband Roy McKissock on Christmas Eve of 1950. Her daughter Donna was born in 1952 and after her husband was killed she moved to Michigan, then Miami Beach, Florida before moving to Texas to join her daughter and family in 1985. She started her career in London, England in 1946 for the Ministry of Fuel and Power as a secretary. After her husband was killed in Montreal she moved to Detroit, Michigan and worked as an executive secretary for Ford Motor Company, Studbaker Packard, and various other lawyers. She even worked for the Comedian Jackie Gleason until she retired to Texas to be with her daughter and family.