

Elizabeth Cristina Ortiz-Flournoy

April 20, 1978 - February 12, 2013

Elizabeth Cristina Ortiz-Flournoy 04/20/1978-02/12/2013 Elizabeth entered into eternal rest on February, 12, 2013 at 34 years of age. She left lasting memories of love and care, and touched the lives of so many. She was preceded in death by her father, Rudy C. Ortiz, whom she loved deeply and whom will welcome her into his warm embrace. She is survived by her loving husband, Leon B. Flournoy, who cherished her spirit and sense of humor and who will eternally be grateful for the time he shared with her. She is also survived by her paternal grandfather, George Moya Ortiz, who gave her away at her wedding and has always been a warm shield of love and care for all of us, especially Elizabeth, her sister, and brother since their childhood. She is survived by her mother who is so proud of all her accomplishments, Margarita P. Ortiz, her sister and brother-in-law Michelle O. Zuniga and Gilbert Gibby Zuniga, her brother, Eric C. Ortiz, her father-in-law, Robert Brent Flournoy, her mother-in-law, Velma Flournoy, her brother-in-law, Byron J. Flournoy, her nephews, Ryan C. Ortiz and Gabriel Zane Zuniga, her niece, Zoe Zuniga, and by Eric's new family, Christina Montoya and Amarige Diaz. Elizabeth was born at Christus Santa Rosa Downtown and graduated from Clark High School. She received her Bachelor of Science in Applied Learning and Development from the University of Texas at Austin in 2002. She spent many years teaching at Martin Middle School and had recently transitioned into a counselor position at Travis High School. Liz, as she was known to most of her friends, was a woman who wore many hats. As she was attending school to complete a Masters in Counseling this summer, she planned a wedding, was making a home with Leon, and bringing joy to all who knew her. She recently received a promotion at Travis High School. She touched the lives of countless children, young adults, faculty and staff, friends, and her extended family. Elizabeth's family would like to thank all who continue to hold her dear in their hearts. Liz will forever be remembered as the first girl on the dance floor and the last one off. Visitation for Liz will be at Mission Park Funeral Chapel South 1700 SE Military Drive, San Antonio, TX 78214 on Sunday, 2/17/2013 beginning at 3 pm. The Holy Rosary will be recited at 5 pm. The Funeral Mass will be celebrated at 9:30 am on Monday, 2/18/2013, at Saint Francis Assisi Catholic Church 4201 De Zavala Road, San Antonio, TX 78249. The interment will follow at Mission Burial Park South.

Tribute Wall

ZZ

“ Dear Liz,

You would walk in the front door with gifts from all over the world. But that wasn't the reason I would smile, the reason I smiled and everyone in the room would smile. Is because you were smiling. I remember the warm hugs you would give me and how you always had some exotic present for me and Zane. None of those matter, what matter was that you were there with my mom. If anyone loved you more than Leon, it was my mother. I miss you so much and everyday doesn't go by that I don't think about you. I miss you so much Auntie Liz, and I wish you were here with me so I can talk to you about how much my heart hurt. I love you Auntie Liz and I can't wait to see tomorrow.

Love, your 17 year old niece, Zoe

---

Zoe Zuniga - April 19, 2020 at 02:02 AM

Such a joy to have shared a fraction of life with you. I remember how you loved Zoe and Zane. Feel lucky to have known you

---

o - January 27, 2023 at 09:24 PM

Knew you as a kid, always thought you were meant to change the world. Not sure how, but Saddened to hear your not hear anymore.

---

T - July 19, 2023 at 02:33 AM