

Ella O. Manning

April 7, 1911 - June 26, 2005

MANNING

“Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me will live, even though he dies; and whoever lives and believes in me will never die.” John 11:25. Ella Olfers Manning, born April 7, 1911, in Blanco, Texas, went home to be with Her Lord and Savior on Sunday, June 26th. She was preceded in death by her beloved husband of 69 years, James M. Manning of San Antonio, Texas. Ella learned the secret to living contentedly in the moment, grateful for the love of friends and family, and yet looking ahead to that time she would be embraced at the end of her earthly journey by her Heavenly Father. She is survived by several nieces and nephews, as well as numerous dear friends.

“ I am the daughter of Lee and Mary Wetz who were long time friends of Ella and Jim. Mother went to school with Ella and she also worked with her. I remember visits from them when they came to El Paso when I was a child, and as an adult I visited with them
