

Ellwood Rangnow Jr.

July 31, 1939 - May 27, 2025

Ellwood Rangnow, Jr. was born on July 31, 1939 in Cuero, Texas to Lorine and Ellwood Rangnow, Sr. He entered eternal rest with his Lord on May 27, 2025. He is preceded in death by his parents and step daughter, Jana Bishop; survived by his loving wife of nearly 20 years, Carol Singleton Rangnow of San Antonio; his stepson Sonny Bishop, step grandsons, Braden and Brice Bishop; sisters, Gloria and Lorna, as well as massive additional loving family members and friends.

Ellwood was born in Cuero, Texas. He grew up in Meyersville, Texas where he worked very hard with his parents on their ranch. Ellwood was in the 4H and got awards as a Future Farmer. He came to San Antonio where he worked with electronics and then began a career at Kelly AFB where he retired. Everyone who knew Ellwood considered him to be a smart and one of the most honest, giving and caring men they ever knew. His love for animals was enhanced when he purchased his ranch in Nixon, Texas. Ellwood, who will be greatly missed by everyone, was extremely fair to everyone around him. He thought fairness and kindness were extremely important in life.

“ Uncle Elwood was always kind and encouraging to me as a young man. He went out of his way many times when I was in high school and college to help me become the man I am today. My condolences to all his family and friends.

“ We met and got to know Elwood through my life long friend Carol Rangnow, we have had the pleasure to include Elwood in our lives. Elwood and Carol joined us at Christmas partys, Thanksgivings and each and every time Elwood made each event more special. He was a true gentleman and was one of the kindest persons that we have ever met, he will be missed. Carol and family we are so sorry for your loss.
