

Eloisa G. Gonzales

July 28, 1961 - September 9, 2023

Eloisa G. Gonzales, a beloved wife, mother, sister, and friend, peacefully departed this world on September 9, 2023, leaving behind a profound legacy of love, kindness, generosity, and cherished memories. We commemorate a life richly woven with enduring threads of love and unity that defined the Gonzales Family, standing as a testament to the everlasting power of love and togetherness.

Born on July 28, 1961, in Manhattan, New York, to her loving parents, Cipriano and Terumi Garcia, we honor a life defined by an endless source of love, unwavering support, remarkable generosity, and genuine care for others. "Eloisa, who worked and retired from the Bexar County Courthouse after a wonderful career while raising her family, consistently exuded warmth, compassion, and humor in her interactions with everyone she encountered."

Eloisa is survived by her devoted husband of 44 years, Roland Gonzales, and their three adoring sons, Roland, Raymond, and Rudy Gonzales. Eloisa was also blessed with three precious grandchildren, Socrates, Raymond, and Gianna (children of Raymond and Georgina Gonzales). Her memory also lives on through her beloved daughter-in-law, Georgina Gonzales, and the significant others of her sons Roland (Corina) and Rudy (Sabrina).

Eloisa cherished a special bond with her siblings: Cipriano (JR) Garcia, Helen Mireles, Terumi Fausto, Anita Bicknell, Olga Tijerina, Dolores Hobbs, and Mike

Garcia, whom she cared for deeply.

Eloisa's love extended to a vast circle of family members, all of whom she held dear. She embraced the roles of sister, aunt, and friend with the same unwavering love and acceptance that she showed her immediate family. She unflinchingly commemorated the birthdays, anniversaries, special occasions, and significant milestones of her extended family members, ensuring that they were always aware of the special place they held in her heart.

Eloisa's life was marked by a strong desire for adventure and a love for creating special moments. She found great joy in the simple pleasures of life, such as fishing by calm waters day or night, camping under the starry sky, or sharing laughter at a casino or during a game of bingo. Eloisa loved to explore new places, appreciating the beauty of the world during her travels, while listening to a wide range of her favorite musical playlists along the way. Her frequent visits to casinos and her eagerness to revel in joyful moments with her family were a testament to her lively and spirited nature. Eloisa's greatest source of happiness was her family, who loved her wholeheartedly, and whom she treasured beyond measure. Her devotion knew no bounds. Her heart overflowed with love for her family, and she embraced her role as a loving mother and wife with grace and tenderness.

Eloisa's compassion touched the lives of many. Her generosity was boundless, and she never hesitated to offer a helping hand or a listening ear to anyone in need. Her home was a sanctuary of warmth and hospitality, where she welcomed all as if they were her own. To many, she was lovingly viewed as a "Mother Figure" due to her nurturing spirit and her gift for making everyone feel like part of the family. Her generosity extended to the kitchen, where Eloisa consistently prepared ample, mouthwatering dishes, always ensuring that anyone at her home or on their way was warmly offered a delicious, hot plate.

Eloisa Gonzales left an indelible mark on the hearts of those who knew her. While her physical presence is no longer with us, her legacy of love and acceptance endures and will live on forever, a testament to a beautiful life well-lived.

“ I can't stop thinking about you; I love you and miss you so much. We are all doing our best to be strong, praying each day for strength, peace, and comfort. You are so beautiful and had an impact on so many people. We will forever cherish the great memories and laughter, the unconditional love, and do our best to uphold the wonderful legacy you and Dad have established.

Thinking of you always— knowing you are forever in our hearts. I love you so much mom!

“ Mom, I miss you so much. You were my mom and my best friend. We shared so many inside Jokes that only me and you would laugh at. I could just look at you with a goofy face and you already knew what I was thinking. I’m going to miss those moments everyday. Your smile and laughter filled my heart with joy. I will cherish all the memories we made over the years. You had your sense of humor even towards the end. As Raymond put it “mom stared death in the eyes and wasn’t scared”. I will always admire your bravery and how you embraced acceptance and went in peace. God called his Angel back home to live in paradise and no longer suffer. You’ll forever be in our prayers and never forgotten. I love you mommy. Till we meet again. 💔

“ To my beloved wife, our journey began when we were young, and we fell in love, embarking on a lifelong journey that spanned over 44 years of marriage and family. We grew, learned, and taught each other, evolving together as partners in life. Your beauty as a wife and your love as a caring mother enriched us all over the years.

The memories we created and the moments we shared remain etched in my heart and soul. You will forever be in my thoughts and prayers, a cherished presence that time cannot diminish. My love for you knows no end and will endure until we reunite. You are, and always will be, the love of my life.

With all my love and might, I hold you in my heart, my dear babe.

“Eloisa would always think of others before herself and always remembered all the little things the small details. At one of our first of MANY family dinners, everyone was drinking tea and she noticed I wasn't drinking any. She learned that I didn't like or drink tea but loved fresh squeezed lemonade and from that moment forward, without asking, she always made fresh squeezed lemonade for me at our family dinners. It melted my heart and always made me so happy! She remembered everything about everyone and always did her best to make sure everyone was included or taken care of. Being apart of this family is such a blessing and their generosity and kindness is unlike anything I've ever experienced. Mama Gonzales, we already miss you so much but we feel your presence everywhere! Every day we are reminded that you are still here, living through us. Your memory will live on and you will not ever be forgotten. The Rina's are going to hold it down and take care of your boys. Love you always! □

“ It has taken me some time to process and find the right words to express the depth of my sadness, which is something I’m not sure I’ll ever be able to fully convey. I’ve come to the realization – the grief our family shares stems from a place of deep unconditional love. As a family, we have been devastated / heartbroken, as the love we shared with her was immeasurable and more words could describe.

My beautiful mother's absence has left an irreplaceable void in my heart, and as my brother recently said, the world seems like a much different place. We miss her deeply, and her passing has significantly changed my perspective on what truly matters in life.

I am grateful for the countless memories we created as a family, from childhood to adulthood. I can’t stop thinking about the great times, family trips, vacations, dinners, and lessons we experienced together. I know she is proud of us, as we stand united, finding strength and comfort in the beautiful memories we were fortunate enough to share with her and in the support we have offered each other every step of the way. Her profound sense of love, generosity / selflessness, and unity is a legacy she instilled in us that will live on forever.

I’ve also come to the realization that my mom would not want to see us consumed by sadness or unable to manage our grief. Her love and the way in which she raised us inspire us to find peace and healing in the beautiful memories we shared.

Though it seems unbearable at times, in our hearts, we take solace in the belief that she is now in a better place, free of pain, sickness, and suffering. Heaven is the greatest gift one could receive, and we find comfort in the thought that she has found eternal peace and comfort. 💔🙏 #InLovingMemory #ForeverInMyHeart #WeLoveYouSoMuch #FamilyFirstAlways #AllLoveAlways

I will never forget the kindness and love Eloisa had given me. She has been the best grandmother to our children and the best mother in law that I could ever ask for. Eloisa was an amazing woman who was selfless. I witnessed how hard she loved and how she did everything she could for her family. There was nothing that she wouldn't do for them. I will forever miss our talks and laughs together. I will miss that the most, our laughs. Seems like we were always laughing or joking around. Our world will never be the same. Eloisa taught Ray and I so much when it came to being parents. I am forever grateful for her guidance, support and protection. I thank God for blessing me with you. Your love we will never forget.

To my beautiful wife Eloisa today is your birthday July 28/2024 it will be my first year without you on this special day. I still cry and think of you every day and I pray to God to give me the strength and will to continue keeping the promise that I made to you in taking care of our boys and keeping our family together, I also thank God for blessing you with the gift of being able to watch over us and visiting us in our dreams and thoughts. I will always cherish the memories of the love that you instilled in our family and everyone that you touched with your love and kindness and support. I miss you very much the hugs the kisses the laughter the 47 years of our journey together in marriage and the memories of growing up together raising a family together. You are the love of my life and I will always hold you in my heart , I pray to God every day to please guide me and bless me with the gift of being reunited with you again in heaven so we can continue our journey together again in heaven. I try to find comfort in knowing that God has taken away your pain and suffering and is now comforting you with love and tranquility and the gift of reuniting you with your Mother and Father and other family and friends that you touched and loved. I love you babe and I always will. Please continue to visit me in my dreams and guide me and the boys with your spirit and watch over all of your family that love you and miss you so much. Love you and miss you till we meet again in Heaven.
