April 17, 1912 - April 10, 2007

T E N O R I O

Eloisa Melendez Tenorio went to be with the Lord on April 10, 2007. Eloisa was born to Aurelia and Concepcion Melendez on April 17, 1912, in Monterrey, N.L., Mexico. Eloisa and her family came to the U.S. on September 16, 1914. Eloisa attended local schools; she was known as the “Charleston Kid” at Lanier High School during the “Roaring Twenties”. She is survived by daughters: Irene Raul Arreola, Yolanda Simard, Sonia Narno Salinas, Mary Tenorio Melendez and son Concepcion Olga Elizondo. She is survived by 24 grandchildren, 38 great-grandchildren, 14 great-great grandchildren and many cousins, nieces, nephews and friends. Eloisa was preceded in death by her parents, six siblings and two infant sons.

Eloisa passed away at home in the company of her loving family. The family wants to express their sincere gratitude to Vitas Hospice Staff and to her dedicated caregivers Hopie Jimenez and great granddaughter Desiree Melendez.

“ Mama Grande,
Words won't ever express how much you meant to me. You taught me about life, love and passion. You groomed me to be the woman I am today. My lifelong desire is to live to be a grandmother just like you were to me. Your dedication and uncond

“ I remeber grandma most for her witty humor and her never ending love for her family.

I love you grandma. Go run, walk, jump, and all that you wish to do hand in hand with the Lord.
