“ I remember my friend Elsa from our time together at St. Teresa’s Academy. She held the first party for our group. It was her birthday party in 1963. It was in the back yard and she played great music. We had so much fun because she was so much fun!

“ Sincere condolences to Elsa’s families. Our Lord has prepared an eternal place next to Mr Fuentes. Your memories will always be with you as she gave to you, her children and family. In 2016 as she celebrated her 50th BSA class reunion and now she will be remembered by all. Friends never depart nor do prayers or memories. BSA will remember her with a mass. Blessings and let Our Lord give you all strength and healing. Betty R Chrisman/BSA Alumni
