

Elsie Louise Uhlig Gott

March 6, 1920 - November 10, 2012

Elsie Louise Uhlig Gott passed away Saturday, November 10, 2012. She was born in Creedmore, Texas on March 6, 1920. Elsie was the youngest of eight children of Otto Carl and Hulda Louise Uhlig. Growing up on a farm during the depression was not easy, but there were some bright spots. She always talked about going to dances at Rogers Ranch where she developed her love of dancing. Elsie married Harry Edward Gott in April 1940. Prior to Harry being sent to the Pacific during World War II, she was able to travel with him and see some of the other states. Elsie enjoy telling stories about the time she spent in Rhode Island and California, a long way from Creedmore. Elsie and Harry raised their two children, Douglas and Deborah, in San Antonio Texas. She was an avid seamstress, who made not only clothes for herself and her daughter, but shirts for her husband and son. Quilting, knitting, embroidering, all came easy to her. As did canning, preserving and cooking. She was a stay at home Mom, but always had time to help her husband with some recording keeping associated with his work as a salesman. Elsie was preceded in death by her husband, both of her parents, six of her siblings and her son, Douglas Michael Gott. She is survived by her sister, Mary Nolte of Lockhart Texas, her daughter, Deborah Gott Straus, her son-in-law, David J. Straus and numerous nieces and nephews.

A private graveside service will be held for the immediate family. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to a charity of your choice. The family would like to express their sincere thanks to all the employees of Kingsley Place in the Medical Center for their loving care of Elsie these many years. In addition, the family wishes to thank Vitas Innovative Hospice Care for their kind and tender attention to Elsie in her final days.
