HADDOCK

Elva Duval Mayfield Haddock passed away on April 28, 2008 in Round Rock, Texas. She was born on May 25, 1917 in Medina, Texas to Densley Moore Mayfield and Dora McHaney. She graduated from Medina High School as salutatorium of the Class of 1935. Elva went to Government Hill Methodist Church with a friend, that was where she met Morrison, who was from Oklahoma and was in the service at Ft. Sam Houston. They were married for 61 years. After they retired from the military, she had a variety of secretarial jobs. Elva and her husband selected the Madison Retirement Community for their new home when they decided to sell the house they had lived in for 30 years. Morrison passed away several years later and Elva continued to live there until this February when she moved up to Round Rock to be near her family. She was there for only two months, but she really blossomed and made lots of new friends, did new activities, ate great food, saying she had to clean her plate because she didn't want to hurt their feelings wink, wink. She had a great time these last two months. She was an amazing woman and a wonderful mother and wife. Since she moved up to Round Rock, her family was able to see so much more of her, and they were struck once again by how easy it was to make her laugh and what a contagious laugh she had. She will be dearly missed. Elva was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Lando Morrison Haddock; and her grandson Eric Barker. She is survived by her daughters, Anita Haddock of Houston, TX, Barbara Barker of Austin, TX and Landa Reynolds and husband Cecil of Birmingham, AL; sister, Beth George of Montgomery, AL; brother, Lenval Mayfield of San Antonio, TX; grandchildren, Michelle McKenzie and husband Ken of Pineville, LA, Suzanne Free and husband Kent of Birmingham, AL, Trayce Johnson and husband Adam of Austin, TX; great-grandchildren, Cole, Kylie and Kendall Johnson of Austin, TX , Cameron & Connor McKenzie of Pineville, LA and Loryn Free of Birmingham, AL.
