

Elva Cecil McKay Koller

February 6, 1917 - January 30, 2005

Elva Cecil McKay Koller, after 87 wonderful years, God knowing that Cecil was tired took her home with him and let her walk again and into Heaven on Sunday February 30th. Cecil was born to Fred and Bertie Maass on February 6, 1917 in Bandera, Texas. She was the Granddaughter of Bandera Pioneer - Amasa Clark. Cecil lived most of her life in Bandera, Texas - having worked at the First National/Bandera Bank for 37 years. Cecil and her husband, Norman Koller, who preceded her in death owned and operated Koller Auto Supply in Bandera for a number of years. In 1992 she moved to San Antonio and lived with her daughter Marlene. After moving to San Antonio - one of her pleasures was helping out her Daughter Sharon with meetings and a yearly seminar for the Alamo Chapter of Family Physicians of San Antonio. Due to a recent turn in her health, she lived the past 1 ½ years at Regent Care Center on Blanco in San Antonio. She was so blessed her last 1 ½ years with her weekly visits from some special friends - her Angels Dot, Matt, Marjorie, Ann, Shirley, Renee, Tina, and Mitchell. She is survived by 2 daughters -Marlene McKay of San Antonio, Sharon Boecker and husband Gary of Marion, and grandson Gage Boecker of Nashville, Tennessee. Her parents Fred and Bertie Maass, her husband and the girl's father - E.L. "Slats" McKay, second husband Norman Koller, one sister Lucille Schneider and one brother "Fred Jr." Maass, preceded her in death. When someone you love becomes a memory, the memory becomes a "Treasure" - and that is how Cecil will be remembered by her many friends and special San Antonio neighbors which she loved dearly.

Special thanks not only go out to her friends but also to the entire staff at Regent Care who gave her special care and attention and to Vitas Hospice.

Tribute Wall

DN

“ Extending our heartfelt condolences on the loss of your loved one.

---

Directors and Staff at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North - February 01, 2005 at 12:00 AM