“ Elva C. Madrigal and I met in the late '90's....we became very close friends and had many memorable moments, filled with conversation and laughter. She doted on her family and close friends.... she had a big heart and strong spirit. She shared the secret to her Turkey Dressing, showing me step by step directions and was delighted by my shenanigans as I did my impressions of her teaching. She will be missed but will burn forever in our hearts. Rest in peace,my friend, rest in peace.
