“ So few adults ever have the opportunity to really get to know their grandparents. I have been so lucky to have developed such a firm friendship with you. So much of this is due to your warmth and wit. You and I would sit and talk, simply enjoying each other’s company. I loved Friday nights that meant we would spend some time visiting you. You always told us don’t come empty handed so that meant bring me a strawberry milkshake or Whataburger.

There is a lot I am going to miss about you, but most of all I’m going to miss your sweet little smile. When Jesse told you if you ever want to visit us, if you could please visit us in our dreams. I will be waiting my sweet Gram.

Your loving granddaughter,

Jennifer and Jesse

“ I have many memories of my aunt and the my cousins walking over to visit my mom. I can still hear them laughing in the living room. And my aunt's love for decorating her home, painting or rearranging her furniture. I just know that this where I got my love for decorating. Even though I may have not visited her as much as I wish I could have, I though of her often. She was very blessed to have a caring and beautiful family. Till me meet again Tia.

“ A million times I've needed you
A million times I've cried, If love alone could have saved you YOU never would have died
In life I love you dearly, In death I love you still.
In my heart you hold a place, no one else can ever fill. It broke my heart to love you, But you didn't go alone, Parts of me went with you, The day God took you home.
