“ *My deepest symphonies to junior's family.
I want to remember the junior who married Carolyn had 2 great sons , loved his grandchildren.
Junior always looked after and took care of my parents who lived across the street.
After both my parents passed, we were able to keep in touch and talk about our families and I'll miss that connection.
I know he and Carolyn are together now and that should give us all peace.*

“ To Chance and Lance, I remember the day I met your Father As if it was yesterday, over 20 years ago in SEB Hospital, room 158B. I was excited to see his name because I had known You guys for years, and I was glad he was going home. When I went to meet him, he was a Big Burly Strong Man, But something wasn't right about him. He wasn't ready to go home. Although his Dr. had released him, he said he still had back pain and was still short of breath. His Oxygen saturation's were 90% on room air. I was a brand new Nurse, but I was not going to let my friends Dad leave and something happen to him. Between him and I, we decided to hire a new Doctor at 2 am. Thank God we did. He had multiple pulmonary emboli and stayed in the Hospital five more days on a Heparin drip until the oral Coumadin was therapeutic. I have told his story a hundred times to my new nurses, including my Daughters, to Always listen to your Patients, and be a Patient Advocate. It saves lives....RIH with your Beautiful Wife Sweet Man, your work here is Done 💕💕
