“ Annette, you can rest assured that you took great care of your dad. I recall you lovingly speaking of him while working with you at HR. Hold on to your memories of him. He will continue to live in you, your siblings and his grandchildren. Praying that God will provide the comfort, strength and peace to see you through this transitional time. May he rest in heavenly peace. Blessings to you and family.

“ My sincere condolences to the family. Annette and I always shared stories about our daddy's and how much love we have for them. I remember meeting Mr. Zule once when I went over to Annette's house and he was such the sweetest, funniest and very welcoming man I ever met. I am sure God welcomed him with wide open arms, just like Mr. Zule did for me on that one day. May God hug you tight Annette and know that your daddy is hugging you tight too. Love you my sweet friend. Forever Daddy's girls.
