Emily Ellen Margrett

May 26, 1956-April 4, 2015

Emily Ellen Margrett, beloved and proud wife, mother, and friend passed away at St. Luke's Baptist Hospital in San Antonio on Saturday, April 4th, 2015 of natural causes. She was 58.

Mrs. Margrett was born on May 26, 1956 in San Antonio, Texas to Betty Jean and Melvin Luther Heitkamp. Growing up she was an avid majorette at Alamo Heights High School. She attended both UTSA and Trinity University and received a bachelor's degree in business. Mrs. Margrett was employed by the Texas Department of Transportation and retired in 2007. With her free time, Mrs. Margrett loved to volunteer at church by organizing Vacation Bible School. She also loved playing dominoes and bingo, swimming at the YMCA, spending time with family, and reading her almost complete collection of Nancy Drew novels.

Survivors include her husband, Andrew Margrett of Bastrop; and two sons, Matthew and Alexander Margrett of Bastrop.

Funeral services will be conducted at noon on Wednesday, April 8th at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North on 3401 Cherry Ridge Dr. in San Antonio, Texas.
