

Emily Brennan Rose

November 5, 1936 - November 14, 2012

Emily Brennan Rose, loving sister, aunt and friend passed away November 14, 2012 at the age of 76. She was born in Port Jervis NY, November 5, 1936. She is preceded in death by her parents and one brother. Emily was a proud veteran who served her country in the United States Army. She was a fun loving spirit that lived life to its fullest. She spent the last three months of her life at the VA in Kerrville where she touched so many lives and was given the nick name "The Bingo Diva" by her fellow veterans because she won more games than she lost. She touched so many lives and she will be deeply missed. Her survivors include her brother; Robert Bob Tripp and his wife Sylvia of Port Jervis, NY, her good friends her kids Roger and Velma Amador, nieces and nephew along with many friends. Special thanks to Ken and Bessie Flynn, the Staff in the VA Hospital in Kerrville and her Primary Care Physician in San Antonio Doctor Aureicht and nurse's assistant Pamela Butler. The graveside service for Emily will be 1:30 P.M., Thursday, November 29, 2012 at Ft. Sam Houston National Cemetery.
