“ I called her "mama Emma" and I loved her dearly. She was such a funny lady....always had to have her makeup on, hair fixed, nails painted, etc....never knew when she'd have places to go....or if she was just staying home! She treated me like one of her brood and I'm gonna miss her very much. She was my "Texas mama"! Rest now mama Emma....you fought so hard for too many years! I love you, Wanda

“ May you find peace in all the happy memories. I never tired of seeing the family photos and looked forward to seeing who could outdo the rest of the family with the biggest, best flower arrangement on a holiday at Miss Emma's house. May a fabulous lady rest in peace.
