“ Mom, when I look in the mirror every morning, I'm so proud to see your beautiful face looking back at me. I want to say thanks for passing down not just your beauty but also your compassion, your strength, and your heart for loving and helping others, Mom. I'm the daughter I am today because I was loved by the most loving Mom ever.

Love you, Mom, Gwen

“ Mom you were the strength of our family. You knew how to be firm when I needed guidance, and you taught me discipline with love, but no matter what, you were always the first to stand by my side when I needed it the most.

You were loving, caring, and selfless, always putting family first. You gave so much of yourself to your children and to your grandchildren, helping whenever you were needed and never asking for anything in return. Your love extended beautifully to your great-granddaughter, Jaelynn, who brought you so much joy and who you adored deeply. The memories she had with you will never fade.

Your strength, kindness, and unconditional love will live on in me and my family. You leave behind a legacy of family, compassion, and unwavering support that will never be forgotten.

I will always love and miss you mom until I see you again spread the joy in heaven as you did here with us.

Love you so much, your favorite son Mark.

“ I will always love you and I will always miss you. Dementia may have taken pieces of you from this world, but it never changed who you were to me. Even when others struggled or gave up, I never did —because you were still you, and you were still my grandma. I will forever cherish every memory we made, every moment we shared, and every bit of love you gave me. You will always live on in my heart. Rest peacefully, Grandma. 💕💕

“One day Momma you were celebrating my Birth, the next thing I know I am celebrating your Rebirth!!” I am blessed that I felt your heart from the inside out first Momma. I will always love and miss you, but I am filled with so much joy knowing that you are setting in the arms of Jesus with no more pain or suffering!! You were the best Momma in the whole wide world!! Forever your loving daughter, Emma Rose (PS. I am so happy I am your namesake!!)
