

Emma Weinheimer

May 31, 1915 - December 6, 2012

Emma Weinheimer, affectionately known as "Midge" died on 6 December 2012 at the Silver Tree Nursing Home in Schertz, TX. Midge was born to Elder Turner and Emma Van Pelt on 31 May 1915 in McCulloch County, TX. She was the youngest of seven children. She married Paul Marshall and raised two daughters. In 1955 she married Louie Weinheimer. During their 52 years together they monitored and helped to nurture the lives of eight grandchildren and twelve great grandchildren. Midge was the "queen bee" of the family. She enjoyed cooking special meals for them and "directing" their activities with or without an invitation from them. One of Midge's many qualities was making and giving away her handmade quilts that she shared with friends and family members. Emma was predeceased by her parents, siblings; husband Louie, and daughter Helen. She is survived by daughter Pollye Campbell; son-in-law Richard Hargis; grandchildren Lloyd Lewis and wife Nel, Debra Speiser and husband Len, Pam Bonds and husband Jerry, Leslie Greer and husband David, Carlton Cokley and wife Elnora, Susan Reddic and husband Pete, John Hargis and wife Rosemary, Alan Hargis and wife Jennifer, twelve great grandchildren, three great great grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews. In lieu of flowers, the family request donations may be made to the American Heart Association.

Visitation will begin on Monday, December 10, 2012 from 6:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m. at Mission Park Funeral Chapels South. Graveside service will be held on Tuesday, December 11, 2102 at 11:00 a.m. at Ft. Sam Houston National Cemetery.
