“ My prayers to Molly and family in their loss of Junior. I met him years ago and he was a truck driver and avid bowler. Junior gave me some tips on both. God bless you all.

“ Last time I talked with Jr was two weeks ago. I was butt calling him. When I realized he was on the phone I told him it was meant to be to stop and take some time to talk to Uncle. I talked to him about how he was doing and Molly. He said he was ready to get out. He was tired of being at the house wanted to get up and run. I laughed and told him man I just need to come by and visit. I ended the conversation by telling him I love him and I'll come by and see him. I wish I had. I loved that he would let me come by and work on his rebuild. I would listen to him tell story about my grandpa while I was helping him work on his truck. Just made me laugh. I always made me smile Junior you will be missed my condolences to Molly, Sylvia and Eddie.

“ The last visit I had with Jr. was on Sunday, May 11. Although difficult, when I said my goodbyes he followed me to the back door. As I was walking out the door, Molly stopped me. She told me to go back in and tell Jr. that I loved him. I went back to him and said, “I love you”and he replied “I love you too”I am so thankful I did and I will never forget the last words we said to each other. Till I see you again brother rest in peace.
