“ I met Henry several months ago while attending mass at St. Henry's in 2022. He sat in front of me in the choir section singing with our conjunto type music lead by Mary Jane . Henry made me feel so welcomed at St. Henry's and I looked forward to speaking with him every Sunday and getting a hug and a kiss from him He was my angel at St Henry 's . I will miss him but know he will watch over me from above . Thank you Henry and I love you . Your friend Diana

“ Thank you Tio Henry for all the great memories you left and shared with me. Thank you for all the talks we had about our family history. Thank you for staying and taking care of your little sister. Thank you for being a great Godfather to my sons. Thank you for joining us at our home for the holidays. And thank you for being a great church leader & church role model.

I'm going to miss your visits, phone calls, the greeting cards and grocery shopping with you.

We were all blessed to have you in our life's.

Rest in Peace Tio and may the Perpetual Light shine bright upon you 🕊️
